HOMEPAGE REDESIGN

THE PROFESSIONAL PEN, REWRITTEN.

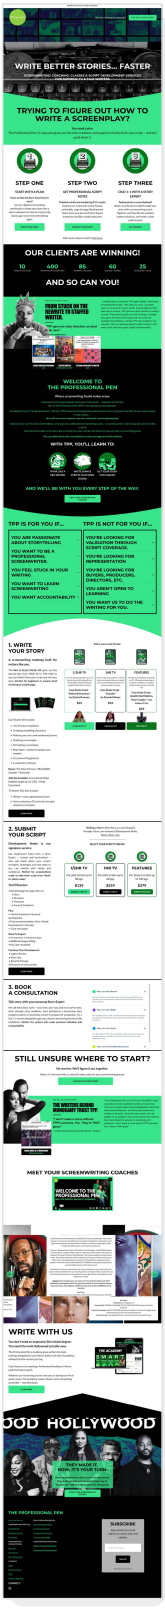

A focused, phone-friendly homepage built around your three priority offers, with your proof, your voice and one clear next step for every visitor.

The pages that follow walk through each section: what is there and why it changed. The live preview also shows the motion (rotating backgrounds, drifting particles, the interactive checklist), which we can walk through together on our call.

BEFORE AND AFTER

BEFORE

AFTER

You asked for a homepage that is clear, easy on phones and focused on what matters most. Here is how each concern was addressed.

"It doesn't bring in enough customers."

Every section now ends in a next step, and a free 15-minute Kick-Off Jam is offered throughout, from the header to the closing call to action.

"It's hard to use on phones."

Built phone-first: a full-screen menu, swipeable offer cards, topic tabs in the FAQ and big, easy-to-tap buttons. Every section was checked at phone sizes.

"My current site has a redundant layout."

The 3-step path appeared twice and several blocks repeated the same promise. Each idea now appears once, in its own section, and the page is about a quarter shorter.

Decision overload

About seven offers and six price cards competed for attention. The homepage now features only your three priorities: Development Notes, Workbooks and Community. Everything else lives in the footer.

Proof was buried

Your results (400+ placements, staffed writers, a showrunner's endorsement) now appear on the very first screen.

Community was almost invisible

The Social is now one of three featured offers instead of a button and a pop-up.

WRITE BETTER STORIES. FASTER.

Your headline stays, because people who search your name will recognise it. Around it, everything works harder.

- Rotating backgrounds (a film set, a writers' room, a typewriter, a theater) under drifting green particles.
- You and your Story Experts front and centre, with your names underneath.
- Floating details: a script note ("This twist lands. Keep it."), Craig R.'s quote and your 14-day turnaround.
- Film strip of results and wins: 400+ placements, Disney Writing Program, Monogamy, Syfy, Amazon and more.
- Two buttons: Explore our offers and Book a 15-min chat.

WHY THIS CHANGED

→ Most homepage visitors searched for you by name. The first screen now confirms who you are and what you do in seconds.

→ Your strongest proof moved from halfway down the page to the very top.

→ The green announcement bar keeps the First 15 Script Competition visible without cluttering the page.

WHEREVER YOUR SCRIPT IS, START HERE.

Your three priority offers, laid out as a path: one for each stage of the writing journey.

- Workbooks (Step 1, Plan it): from $59.
- Development Notes (Step 2, Fix it): from $139, raised in the middle as your signature service.
- The Social (Step 3, Grow it): your community, where courses live too.
- Your own typewriter step icons, one clear question per card (“Finished a draft? Is it ready?”) and one button each.
- On phones the cards swipe sideways.

WHY THIS CHANGED

→ You asked to prioritise exactly these three offers to avoid decision overload.

→ Your old 3-step path and the offers section said the same thing twice. They are now one section.

→ The format pickers and full pricing move to each sales page, where buyers expect them.

GREENLIGHT OR PASS?

Your "TPP is for you if… / not for you if…" lists, told in Hollywood's own language.

- Greenlight card: visitors tap the lines that sound like them and a verdict meter fills up. At 4 out of 4 the clapperboard snaps shut and a little confetti flies.
- Pass card: a rubber PASS stamp lands when it scrolls into view. "No hard feelings. We're just not the right fit (yet)."
- "Sounds like you?" sends them straight to the offers or a chat.

WHY THIS CHANGED

→ This is what you liked about the reference site: visitors know right away whether the offer is for them.

→ It filters out writers looking for validation, representation or a ghostwriter before they book.

→ It is fun and interactive, which matches the playful side of your brand.

OUR WRITERS ARE WINNING.

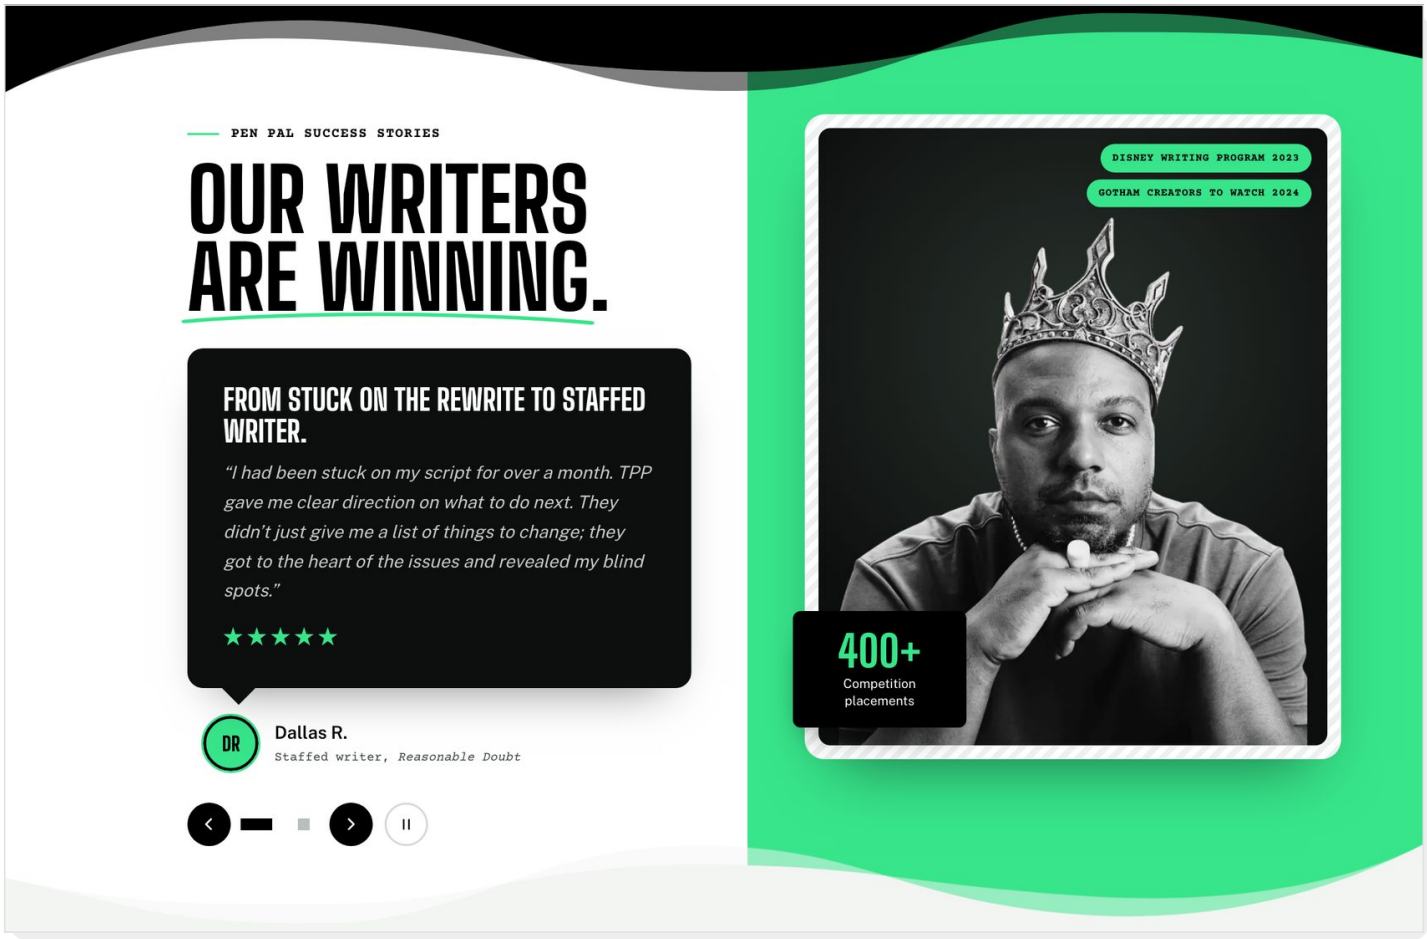

Your two strongest testimonials, with photos, in a slider that rotates on its own.

- Dallas R.: “From stuck on the rewrite to staffed writer” (Reasonable Doubt, Disney Writing Program).
- Craig R. and Caryn W.R.: “I won’t make a move without TPP’s services. They’re THAT good.” (Monogamy).
- Arrows, dots and a pause button; the 400+ placements badge sits on the photo frame.

WHY THIS CHANGED

→ These stories were deep in the page and very long. Short, scannable quotes read better, especially on phones.

→ Real names, credits and photos build trust faster than any claim we could write.

WE'VE GOT THE PASSCODE.

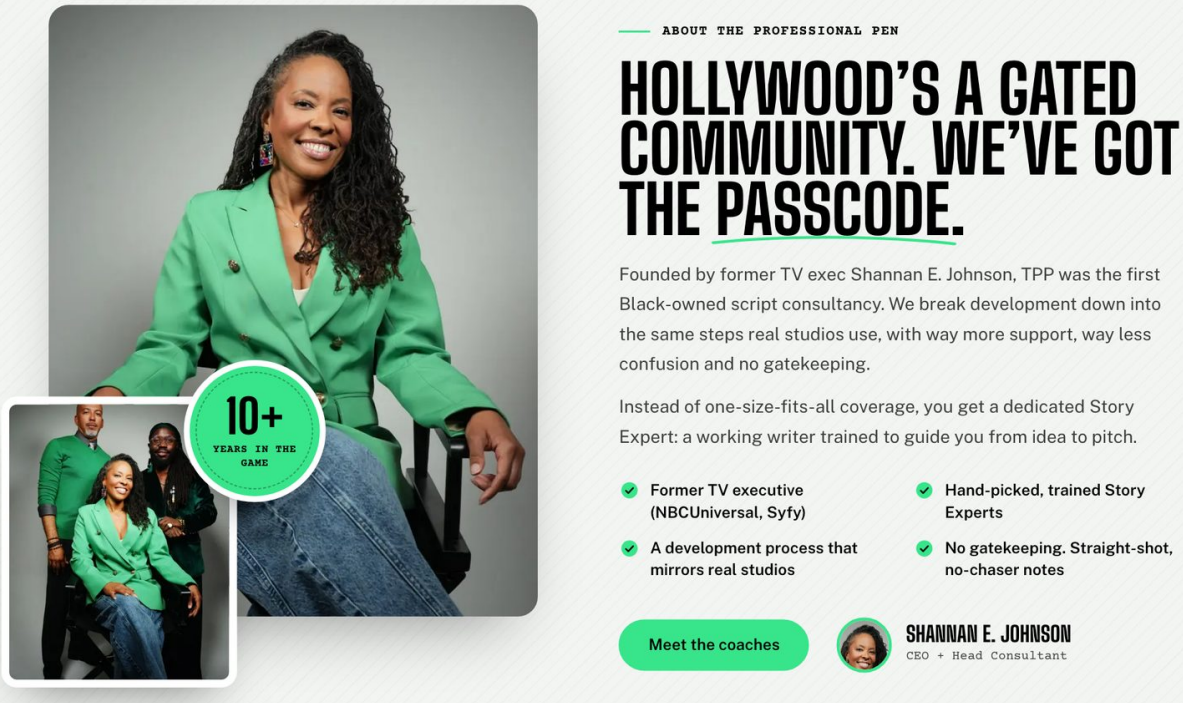

"Hollywood's a gated community. We've got the passcode." Your story, in your voice.

- A short founder story: former TV exec, the first Black-owned script consultancy, a process that mirrors real studios.
- Four quick points, a 10+ years badge and your signature.
- Meet the coaches takes visitors to your welcome video.

WHY THIS CHANGED

→ Your personality is your brand. The "passcode" line and "straight-shot, no-chaser notes" keep that voice front and centre.

→ The long coach bios moved off the homepage; the video introduces the team faster.

06 · VIDEO

MEET THE PEN.

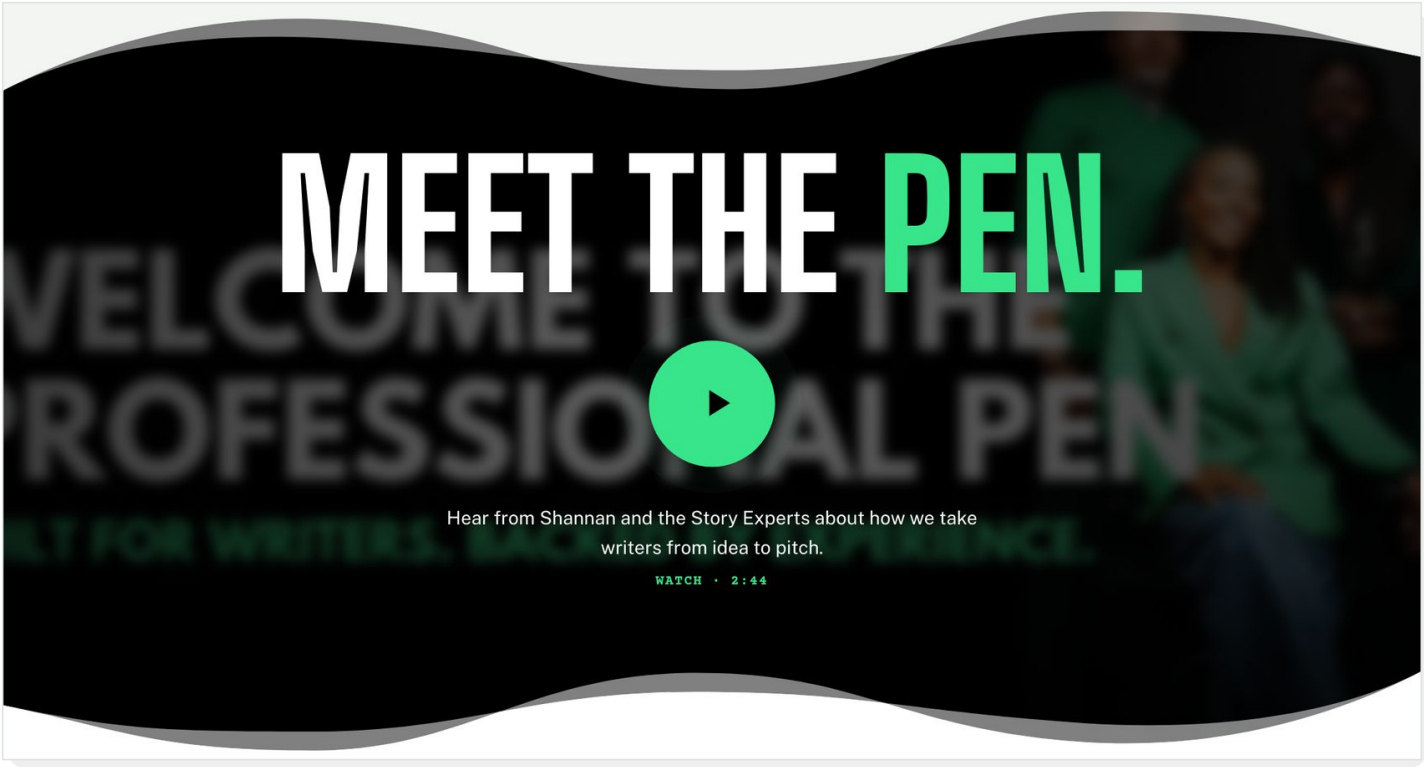

Your “Welcome to The Professional Pen” video (2:44) gets its own full-width section.

- A darkened still from the video with a large play button.
- Pressing play opens the video in a pop-up player.

WHY THIS CHANGED

→ The video was easy to miss on your current page. In under three minutes it does what no paragraph can: it lets visitors meet you.

→ The player only loads when someone presses play, so the page stays fast.

07 · FAQ

GOT QUESTIONS?

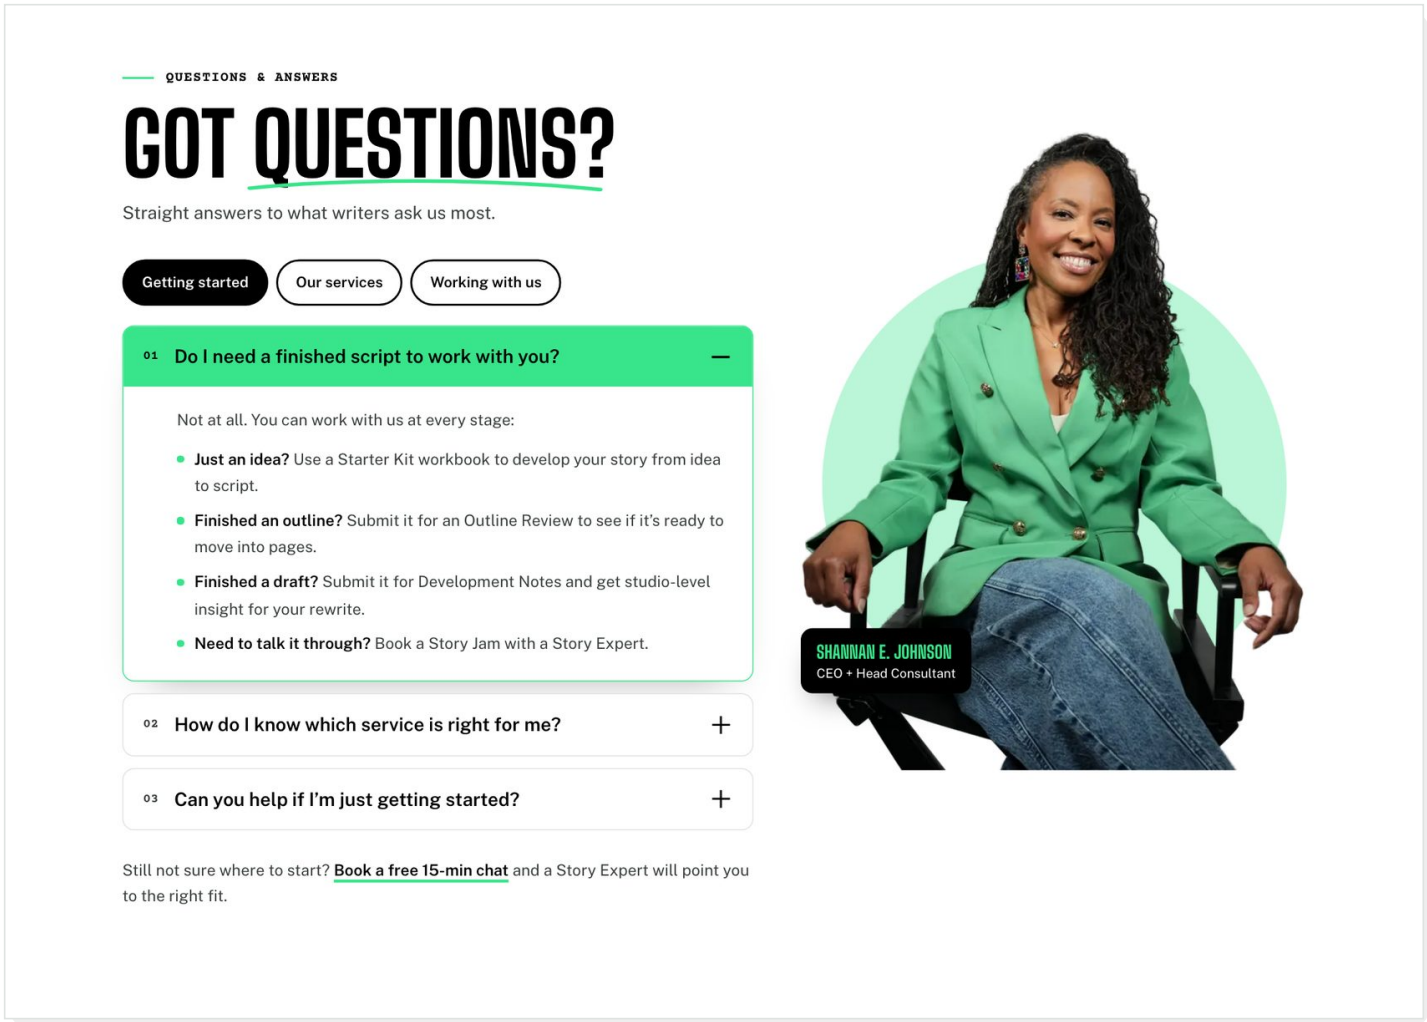

Nine questions from your FAQ page, grouped into three topic tabs.

- Getting started, Our services and Working with us, three questions each.
- One answer opens at a time; the open question turns green.
- You, in the director's chair, beside the questions.

WHY THIS CHANGED

→ Common hesitations (coverage, NDAs, needing an agent, international writers) are answered before anyone has to ask.

→ Tabs keep a long list short and easy to scan on a phone.

THEY MADE IT. NOW IT'S YOUR TURN.

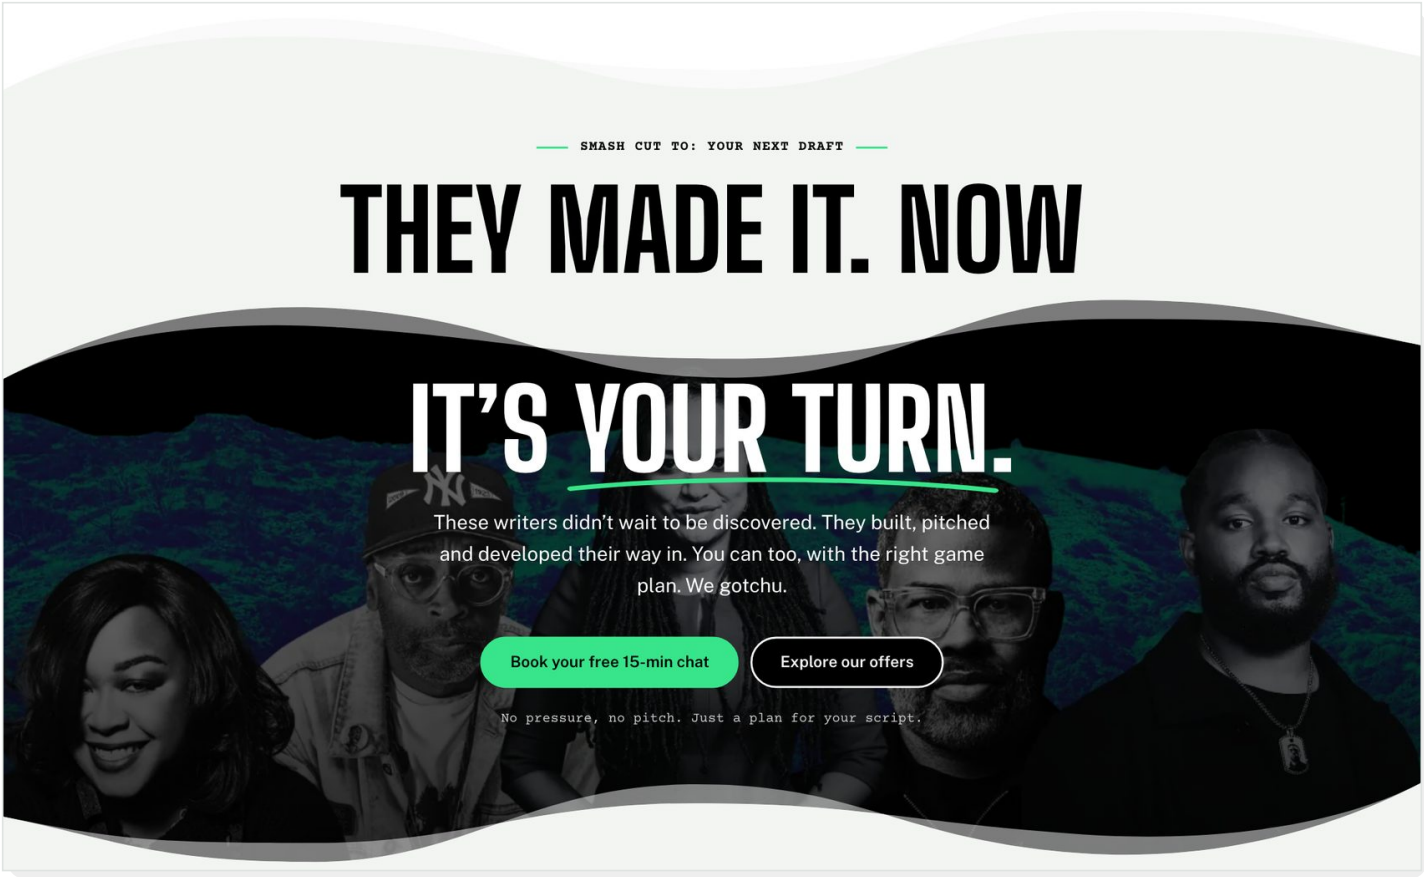

Your own line and your "Hollywood is waiting" image close the page.

- Book your free 15-min chat goes straight to your Kick-Off Jam booking page.
- Explore our offers sends anyone still browsing back to the three offers.
- "No pressure, no pitch. Just a plan for your script."

WHY THIS CHANGED

→ Every visitor who reaches the bottom gets one clear, low-pressure next step.

→ It reuses your own copy and imagery, so it already sounds like you.

LET'S TALK STORY.

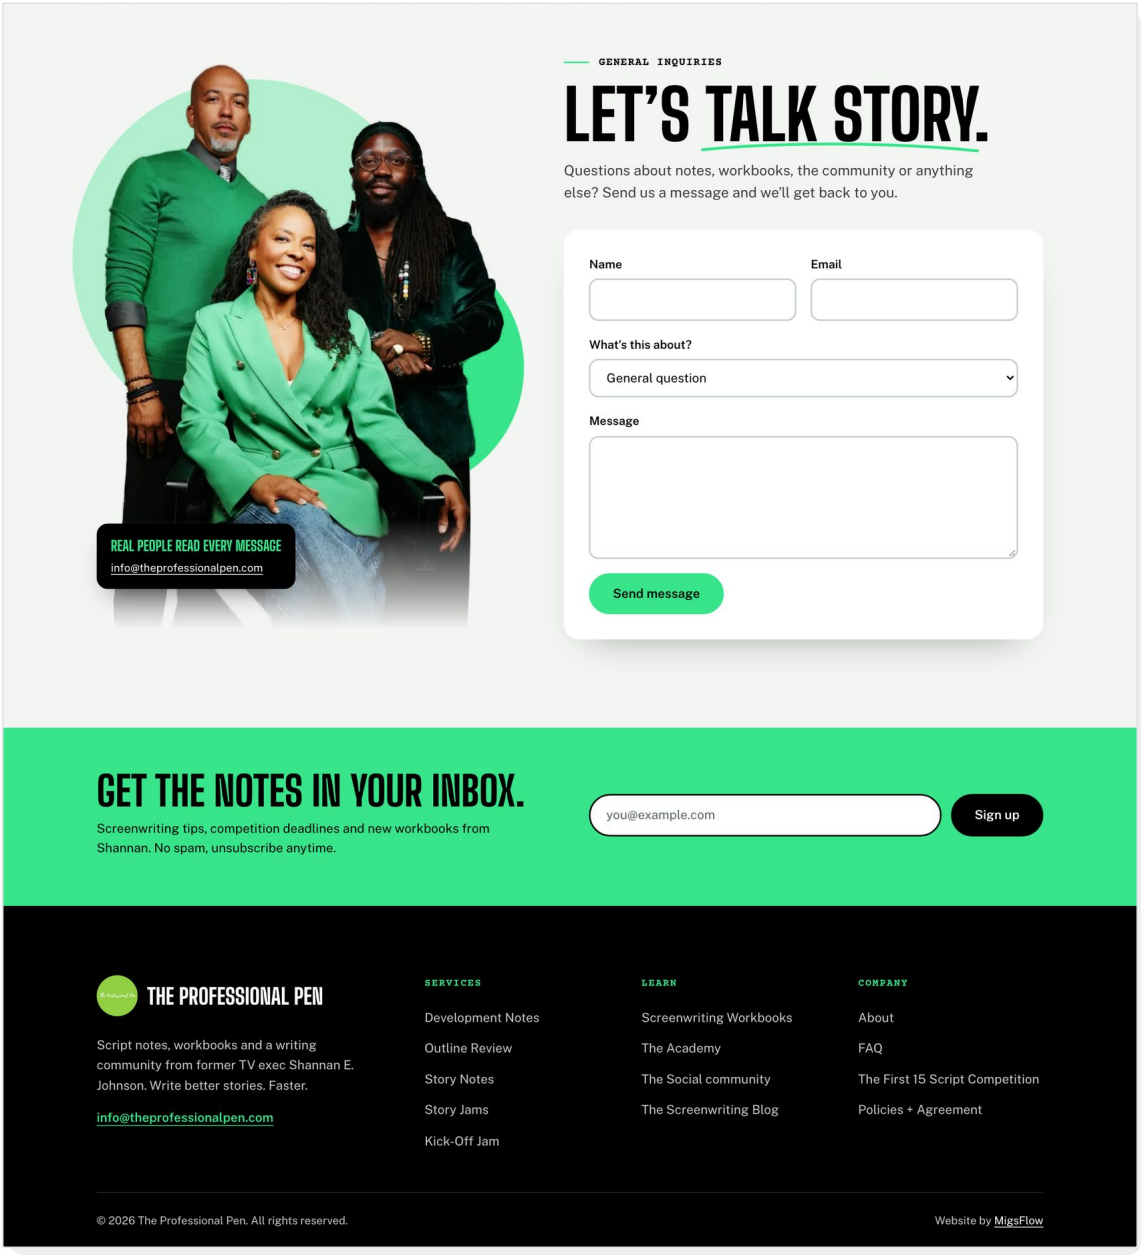

For general questions about anything you offer.

- Contact form with a topic menu: Development Notes, Workbooks, The Social, Story Jams or something else.
- Newsletter signup: "Get the notes in your inbox."
- Footer with everything else: Outline Review, Story Notes, Story Jams, The Academy, the blog, the competition and your policies.
- A back-to-top button appears as visitors scroll.

WHY THIS CHANGED

→ Secondary offers stay one click away without crowding the homepage, as you asked.

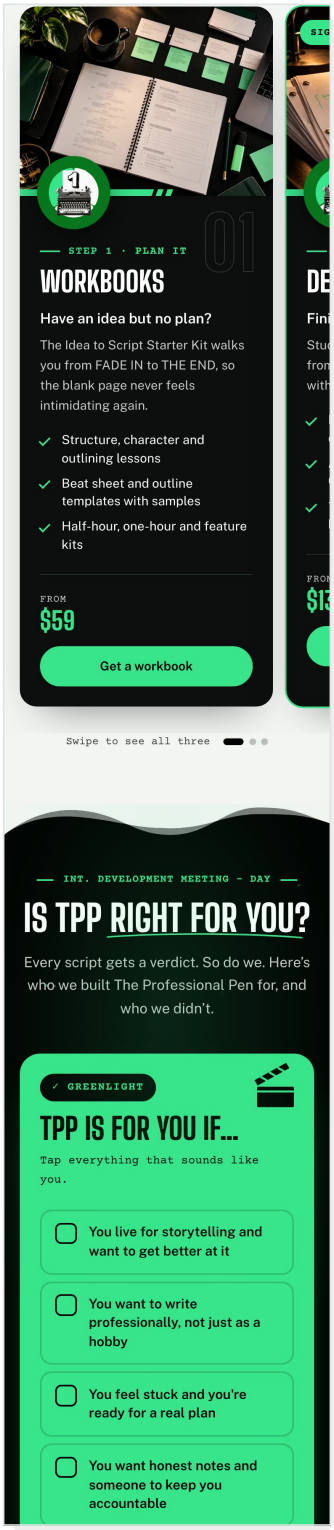

→ The newsletter grows your email list, the first step toward the automated emails you mentioned.

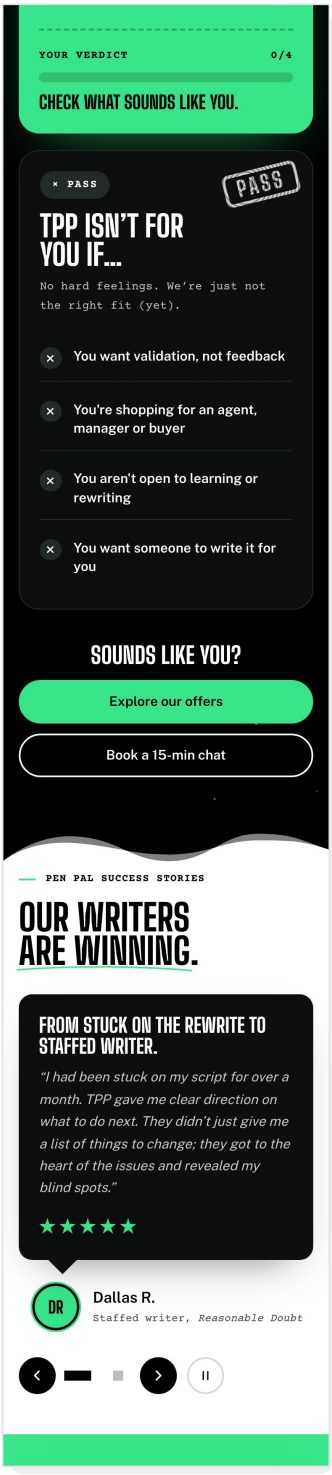

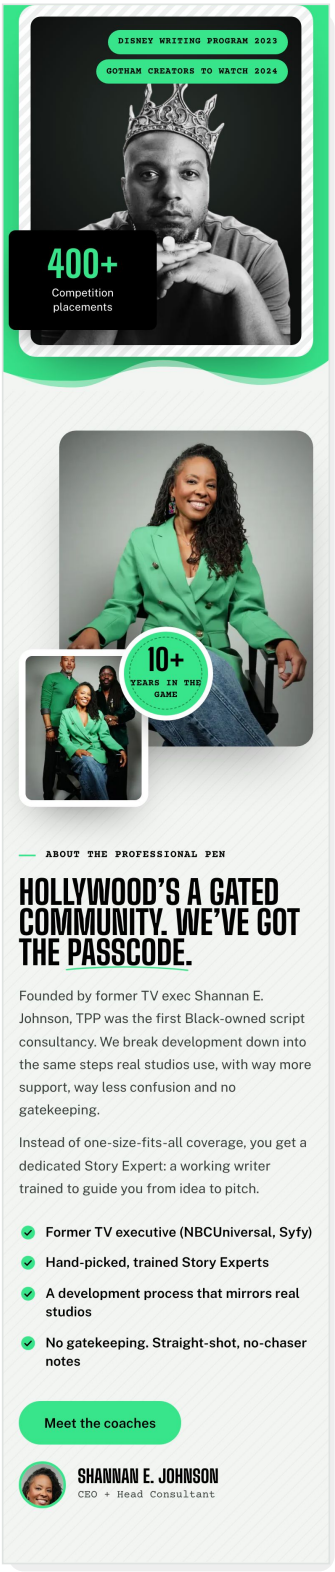

ON YOUR PHONE

Built phone-first, so the page works where most visitors will see it. Read each column top to bottom.

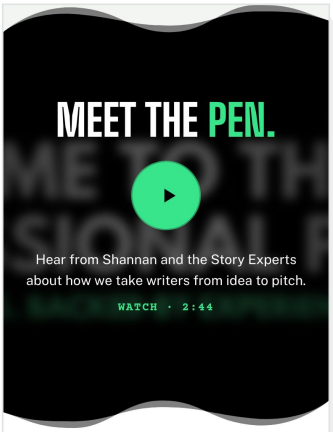

ON YOUR PHONE

Also built in: a full-screen menu with your email and a booking button, swipeable offer cards and a back-to-top button.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

GOT QUESTIONS?

Straight answers to what writers ask us most.

Getting started | Our services | Working with us

01 Do I need a finished script to work with you? —

Not at all. You can work with us at every stage:

- Just an idea? Use a Starter Kit workbook to develop your story from idea to script.
- Finished an outline? Submit it for an Outline Review to see if it's ready to move into pages.
- Finished a draft? Submit it for Development Notes and get studio-level insight for your rewrite.
- Need to talk it through? Book a Story Jam with a Story Expert.

02 How do I know which service is right for me? +

03 Can you help if I'm just getting started? +

Still not sure where to start? Book a free 15-min chat and a Story Expert will point you to the right fit.

SMASH CUT TO: YOUR NEXT DRAFT

THEY MADE IT. NOW IT'S YOUR TURN.

These writers didn't wait to be discovered. They built, pitched and developed their way in. You can too, with the right game plan. We gotchu.

BUILT TO WORK FOR EVERYONE

ACCESSIBLE

Checked with the same tools accessibility reviewers use, with no errors. It works with a keyboard and screen readers, text is easy to read against its background, and all motion stops for visitors who turn it off on their device.

FAST

Every photo is compressed and sized for phones and desktops. The video and the extra hero photos only load when needed, and fonts are hosted with the site instead of loaded from outside services.

EASY TO GROW

The page is built in clean, organised sections, so new offers, testimonials or FAQ answers can be added later without starting over. The same styles carry straight into your sales pages.

READY TO SHARE

When the homepage link is texted or posted on social media, it shows a preview image of you and your headline instead of a blank box.

A FEW THINGS TO CONFIRM

Nothing here needs to be decided now. These are the details we can go through together on our call.

- Your numbers. 400+ competition placements, 85 winners and fellows, 60 staffed and repped, and 10+ years. These came from your current site; are they still current?
- Testimonials and lists. The two client quotes, the “for you / not for you” lines and a few FAQ answers were shortened to fit. Happy with the wording?
- Development Notes turnaround. The FAQ says about 14 business days, with pay later and $4 per extra page, taken from your service details.
- The Social. What members get, and its price, so the card can say more than “less than a movie ticket”.
- Your welcome video. Vimeo may only allow it to play on your own website, which would be fixed once the new site is live there.
- Forms and newsletter. Which tools you use for email and inquiries, so the forms send straight to you.
- The “Hollywood is waiting” image. It features well-known creators, as on your current site. Worth confirming you are comfortable keeping it.

THANK YOU, SHANNAN.

Thank you for trusting me with your homepage. I built it to put your three offers, your results and your voice front and centre, so every writer who finds you knows exactly where to start.

I can’t wait to walk you through it and hear what you think.
